I. READING COMPREHENSION :

Read the text, and then answer the questions.

① I am the first woman mechanic in Nigeria. I started at 14. The idea came to me through dreams. I told my dad about my dream. He said: "Go and sleep – that's not a dream, it's a nightmare."

② Then, when he travelled abroad, my father saw other female mechanics. After coming back, he took me to a garage. Some customers, there, said: "Take her back home, she should learn how to cook." In that workshop, I saw a big engine on the top of a table, dismantled, with black engine oil running down. I fell in love with it. I told my dad that I was starting work that day.

③ I've been a mechanic for 20 years now. I've started a workshop where I train young girls free of charge, give them an allowance, safety boots and a tool kit. I have a big ambition for the future – I want to see a lot of white people coming into Nigeria to start manufacturing vehicles made in Nigeria by the lady mechanics.
